

Isotek Corporation of Swansea, Massachusetts, a wholly owned subsidiary of Isabellenhütte Heusler GmbH KG, has announced the addition of Testco as their distributor.

Testco, located in Sunnyvale, California has been serving leading technology companies worldwide for over 40 years. Their approach to business aligns well with Isotek's commitment to quality and unparalleled technical and customer support.

Testco will be stocking Isotek's precision current sensing and high power resistors which set industry standards for sensing and controlling current.

"We are extremely pleased with the addition of Isotek to our product line. The Isotek products are complementary to our existing portfolio and the Isotek brand is an enhancement to our line card", says Jeff Meyer, President of Testco.

"These are exciting times for Isotek as we are growing rapidly and look forward to additional growth with Testco and their keen focus on providing strong technical and customer support" says Tom Sojda, President and General Manager of Isotek.

Testco can be contacted via their web site at www.testco-inc.com or by phone at 800-748-6285.
